The Examiner has objected to claims 2, 6 to 7, 10, 16, 18 to 19, and 21 as being dependent on a rejected base claim, but indicated that such claims would be allowable if rewritten in independent form.

The rejections are respectfully traversed. Reconsideration is requested for the reasons set out below.

Claim 1

Claim 1 has been amended by combination with claim 2 in accordance with the Examiner's indication as to allowable subject matter.

Claim 2

Claim 2 is canceled.

Claims 3 to 14

Dependent claims 3 to 14 are patentable not least on the basis that they each depend on an allowable independent claim 1.

Claim 15

Claim 15 has been amended by combination with claim 16 in accordance with the Examiner's indication as to allowable subject matter.

Claim 16

Claim 16 is cancelled.

Claims 17 to 25

The dependency of claim 21 has been updated.

Dependent claims 17 to 25 are patentable not least on the basis that they each depend on an allowable independent claim 15.

Claim 26

Claim 26 is canceled.

New claims

New claim 27 is a combination of claims 1, 5 and 6 in accordance with the Examiner's indication as to allowable subject matter.

New claim 28 is a combination of claims 1 and 7 in accordance with the Examiner's indication as to allowable subject matter.

New claim 29 is a combination of claims 1 and 10 in accordance with the Examiner's indication as to allowable subject matter.

New claim 30 is a combination of claims 15 and 18 in accordance with the Examiner's indication as to allowable subject matter.

New claim 31 is a combination of claims 15 and 19 in accordance with the Examiner's indication as to allowable subject matter.

Conclusion

In view of the foregoing, allowance of all the claims presently in the application is respectfully requested, as is passage to issuance of the application. If the Examiner should feel that the application is not yet in a condition for allowance and that a telephone interview would be useful, he is invited to contact Applicant's undersigned attorney at the telephone number listed below.

Respectfully submitted,
